

If water mist can remove the particulates from the air, pellets made of the mix I described can be burned anywhere natural gas is not available and all the systems gas or wood, make FREE Hydrogen.